The program will include extracts from some large-scale Quarrington compositions such as THE GROUP OF SEVEN SUITE (CBC Records 2002), originally recorded with Jane Bunnett, Jane Siberry, Don Thompson and others, and EMILYSONGS, presented at the MacMichael Gallery in 2014, with Julie Michels in the role of Emily Carr, singing the painter's words from various letters, journals, and published works.

The concert will also feature Quarrington jazz originals and interesting selections from other musical genres - swing standards, folk, gospel, rhythm and blues. A few new songs will be premiered, including a memorial to the late Don Franks.
