

The Novalis Project presents

SUNDAY

MARCH
FIRST

3:00 PM

87
TORONTO
STREET
BARRIE

P O E T / A U T H O R
B R U C E
M E Y E R

A Retrospective Reading of his Works

BRUCE MEYER is author or editor of 45 books of poetry, short fiction, non-fiction, pedagogy and literary journalism. His broadcasts on the Great Books for CBC Radio One remain the network's best-selling spoken word CD series, and his volume, The Golden Thread, was a national bestseller. His most recent books are, Testing the Elements, The Obsession Book of Timbuktu, and The Seasons. He was the inaugural Poet Laureate of the city of Barrie and is co-organizer of Barrie's monthly reading series, Word Up. He lives in Barrie with his wife and daughter. Please join us for this unique FREE CULTURAL EVENT. To reserve, call 705-722-5408 or email rsvp@novalisproject.com glorious tour of great literature from Homer to Hemingway, from Virgil to Voltaire....

A

- Michael Enright, host of
The Sunday Edition
(CBC Radio)

Meyer's

enthusiasm will be a tonic for all those who fear all that is worthy is at risk....

- The Toronto Star

Meyer can take us to his (and our) darkest moment without abandoning us there.

- The Seattle Times